

ABOUT REVEREND COLUMBUS GREGORY PRESLEY

Columbus Greg Presley's ministerial background began with ten years in the Air Force, during which he served churches as Music Director in Texas, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Alaska, and Washington. After leaving the Air Force in 1961, he served as pastor of Southern Baptist churches in Texas, Missouri, Florida, and Washington. Greg graduated from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1964.

Greg's conviction was that modern evangelism demands a fresh approach without gimmicks, using biblical exposition from the pulpit. His ministry helped churches to recover the New Testament principle of personal witnessing. As such, Greg preached expository sermons, sang the Gospel, and maintained a ministry called A Voice for Today. This ministry is now run by Greg's son Earl and can be accessed through <https://earlpresley.com/>.

Greg passed away in 2022, but his ministry lives on in this first collection of a series of expository sermons.
